INGERSOLL ANNIVERSARY

Recollections of Corps' Opening
Thirty Six Years Ago Given by Former Officer

The Anniversary Services conducted by the Ingersoll Corps on Sunday, July 6th, were of a splendid success. Mrs. O'Leary, of London, who opened the Corps and conducted the first open-air service on the Market Square 36 years ago the first of July, was the centre of interest. Mrs. O'Leary became a Salvation Soldier 37 years ago the 15th of last June and in the Fall of the same year she was commissioned as an Officer and sent to open Chatham. The Ingersoll Corps was the next to be opened and then Woodstock.

The Sunday morning service was very impressive and inspiring, as Mrs. O'Leary related some of the incidents of the early days of the Army, and she gave a glowing testimony to the saving and keeping power of God. Several of the Comrades who joined the local Corps in the early days took part in the service and spoke of the blessings they had received through the efforts of their former Officer.

There was a good attendance at the evening service and as Mrs. O'Leary related other events of her first experiences in the Army the audience followed her address with keen interest. Postmaster Joseph Gibson welcomed our former Officer back to the town and referred to the time when the Army opened fire here—F. C. D.

NINE DAYS' CAMPAIGN

Led by Adjutant and Mrs. Kendall at Sarnia—Fortteen Seekers

Adjutant and Mrs. Kendall have conducted a nine days campaign at Sarnia. The weather was very warm, but every night a good crowd would be found at the Citadel.

The local paper helped to make the campaign a great success by giving space every day in its columns to reporting the service of the previous night. There were fourteen seekers during the campaign, and the altar service brought in the sum of thirty-seven dollars.

HAMILTON II.

On Sunday, July 13th, the meetings were led by Mrs. Major Burrows and we had a real day with God. Her holiness talk in the morning was very helpful, and at night a straight Salvation address stirred our hearts and convicted sinners. Two precious souls sought and found pardon.

On Wednesday, June 18th, Brigadier Combs conducted the wedding of Brother Vernon Thomas and Sister Mary Marshall. We wish our young Comrades much happiness.

MOVING ON AT GRIQUET

Since January we have had the joy of seeing souls kneeling at the Mercy Seat. Also the Home League has been started and quite a few members are on the roll.

On March 27th, we held a sale which brought in $77, making the total of $1277 since the beginning of the year, which will about complete our new building. Many thanks are due to the Comrades who laboured so heartily to make these special a success.

We are in for victory and souls. To God be all the glory!

HAMILTON II.

God is answering prayer. On Sunday four sinners knelt at the Mercy Seat. We had a red hot prayer meeting and then a Halle-hall wind-up. All praise be to God.

Nine Soldiers Enrolled

Great joy was brought to us at Earlsrock through the visit of the Staff Quartette party, with whom we were joined for a week-end meeting was a blessed thing to our souls, with a large number of attendants. Captain Laurie gave an address which was very helpful.

In the afternoon a musical festival was given by the Staff Party, assisted by the Band and Singers, as chairman being Alderman Sykes.

Captain Parsons had the great pleasure of presenting to one of our returned heroes a new silver instrument. Our Comrade, Bandmaster Comber, expressed his thanks and also gave a glowing testimony to the saving and keeping power of God.

In the Salvation meeting the Spirit of God was poured out upon the people. Nine recruits were enrolled as Soldiers. Brother Aldridge spoke on behalf of the new recruits, and Comrades. ## HUNTSVILLE

Parade for Service at Army Hall—Bandmen Welcomed Home

On Sunday, July 6th, we had a day of real spiritual benefit. In the morning the local L. O. L. unit with us in our Hall for Divine service. The Hall was packed, there being an attendance of two hundred and fifty. Captain Lamm addressed the members on "What is there in a name?" His address was forceful. He made it plain that a man could live up to the ideal without the grace of God in his heart.

At night we welcomed home the second of our Bandmen, Mr. Lloyd Jones in the person of Bandmaster Lawrence Hunt. Our Band is doing well under the Leadership of Bandmaster Ould and our members twelve, who are very reliable in their open air work. The Corps generally is in a good spiritual condition and are united to pull down the strongholds of Satan—Edna Ward, C. C.

A PROGRESSIVE BAND

The Brandon Young People's Band is still progressing rapidly. We have now twenty-five players, and will have more as the boys overseas come home. We are playing out of the Band Journals up to seven hundred and fifty one.

The citizens of Brandon have shown much appreciation of our service. Within the past few months we have played seventy-five troop trains in, and have also played at eight towns outside of Brandon. By the time this goes to press we shall have had new uniforms. Recently we purchased a set of saxophones and a bass trombone.

WANTED!

PEACE SUNDAY AT SYDNEY

Meetings Led by Property Secretary and Divisional Commander—Fruitful Service at Jail

On Sunday, July 6th, Lieutenant-Colonel Miller and Major Crichton conducted the morning and evening services in the Temperance Hall, which is being rented by the Sydney Corps until we have a new Citadel erected. In the holiness meeting the Colonel's address on "The greatness of small things" was very interesting and heart searching.

The Peace service in the evening was well attended and under the reading desk a streamer with the word "Peace" in large red letters indicated the subject for the occasion. The Colonel's address was enjoyed by all, and the singing of peace choruses in between enabled the congregation to enter into the spirit of the meeting. After a well-thought-out meeting, led by Major Crichton, one soul found peace of soul.

A meeting with the Soldiers after the service in connection with the prospects of a new Citadel cheered up all.

The services in the jail continue to be appreciated by the men, the last being especially enjoyed. The Captain played the organ and Mrs. Boshier and another Comrade, harp, and the men selected their songs. After the Captain's address six men held up their hands signifying they wanted to live a better life. One man was very repentant; on being interviewed he said he was sentenced for non-support of his wife and family, but he was now ready to go and support them. The Captain placed the case before the Minister of Justice and the man has been released. The Captain obtained a situation for him.

A visit was paid to the Cape Breton Asylum, the Supervisor having called at the Quarters with his automobile for the Officers. All the inmates were visited and arranged made for a service—W. B.

ORILLIA

Our veteran Comrade, who is 60 years of age, has been the Color-Sergeant for fifteen years. He is a typical old-time Salvationist and never misses a meeting of any kind, if it is at all possible to attend. Brother Samuel Barker, of Oshawa, C. A., collected $64.35 for Self-Denial. He is over seventy years of age and to be seen at all the meetings and open-air.

A wedding in which Songster Albert Robbins and Songster Sister Harrison figured prominently took place in the Dovercourt Citadel on Monday, June 30th. Lieutenant-Colonel Chandler performed the ceremony, Mrs. Chandler assisting. The bridegroom, who was severely wounded in France, was ably supported by his brother, Randolph John Robbins, late of the Third Battalion, and the bride by her sister, Songster L. Harrison, of Earlsrock.

The Songster Brigade sang, by request of the bridegroom, "He Knoweth the Way that I Take," and the Band played a special selection. Congratulatory addresses were made, and wise counsel given by Songster Leader Webb, Songster Secretary Mrs. Roberts, Lieutenant W. Harrison, and the groom's parents.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Peace and After

THE official conclusion of peace has now been celebrated throughout the Allied Countries. With great rejoicings all classes have united in thanking God that the long agony which wicked and wilful men inflicted upon the world has, at any rate so far as its active continuation is concerned, come to an end. Alas! It will be many, many long years before the sorrows and losses of this terrible time will have passed away and been overcome.

The question that now comes up for practical answer is, "What are the people going to do with the new era upon which the world is entering?" With the studious lesson fresh before them of the ruin that unbridled selfishness and pride bring upon mankind, will the various sections of the community shut their eyes to it all and enter upon another period of war—each fighting the other, and looking only to selfish advantage—or will there be a true entente in which there will be mutual desire to understand one another, and co-operation? The wastage of life is terrific; industrial and class conflict is equally destructive of the assets of the community. The nations have peace; what are they going to do with it? Only on the plan of the Man of Nazareth, and by the Grace of God can mankind reach the goal of universal peace and happiness.

Tribute to Service

THE interview with Dr. Abbott in which we reprint from The Toronto Weekly Star, and which will be found on page 7, has a little story behind it:

The Doctor is Secretary of the Toronto Citizens' Repatriation League. Among the Organizations which co-operate with this body is the Salvation Army. So impressed has our good friend been by both the manner and efficiency of the service rendered in this connection by the Army that he sought some public means of expressing this appreciation, and himself arranged that he should be interviewed upon the subject, giving strict instructions that no word concerning his purpose should be passed to the Army's Office, as he wished the whole thing to come to them as a surprise.

We need hardly say that the Doctor's good opinion of their work, and the method he has chosen of making it known, are both highly appreciated by the Officers and workers concerned. It would in any case be considered by them a privilege to in any way be of service to returned men and their families; to know that their efforts are regarded so kindly and valued so highly is an encouragement by the way that will not be without its effect.

Prohibition in America

AS we go to press news is to hand which shows that the people of the United States are bent upon making effective the policy of Prohibition which the nation has so evidently decided is the best thing for it.

The course of affairs in this connection across the border should be a stimulus to the cause in Canada. Even in those Provinces where there is an overwhelming preponderance of public opinion for Prohibition, there will have to be an awakening to the necessity of definite action, or it will be found the "wet" minority will carry the day.

This question is far too serious and affects the country in far too widely a manner to be made one of party politics. On every hand there is an abundance of testimony to the good results which have followed the wartime legislation which closed the bars. It would be criminal for citizens who have knowledge of these results to allow a return to the old conditions to come about because they will not be at trouble to prevent it.

"If The Army Had Not Been!"

Extracts from a Jubilee Address at the Royal Albert Hall, London
By MRS. GENERAL BOOTH

It is with great joy that we who have known the Salvation Army in the day of small things take part in this Jubilee Celebration. How very different many things would have been if the Salvation Army had not been brought into existence! Hundreds of thousands in our own nation and amongst the sixty-five different nationalities of Salvationists, are feeling just as I do—that we owe all that has made life happy and useful to the Salvation Army.

A Searching Test

How wonderful it is that peoples of so many nationalities should willingly accept such a test as that imposed upon them by the Articles of Faith, drawn up by our beloved Founder, which begin: "Having members with all my heart the Salvation offered to me by the tender mercy of Jehovah, I do here and now publicly acknowledge God to be my Father and King, Jesus Christ to be my Saviour, and the Holy Spirit to be my Guide, Comforter, and Strength; and declare that I will, by His help, love, serve, worship, and obey this glorious God through all time and through all eternity." They also pledge the Soldier to total abstinence from intoxicating liquor, from profane language, and from all frivolous pleasures.

A like faith is accepted by multitudes outside the ranks of the Salvation Army, but in the Salvation Army alone is the practical test of this experience required as a token of membership. Such are the people composing the rank and file of the Salvation Army.

Our Founder for ever established the right of the common people to partake in the ministrations of the Gospel. Fifty years ago he and his dear wife saw by faith what we have seen in actual fact that the ordinary working man and woman, endowed by the Holy Spirit, was as fitted to minister to the needs of Christ's work as any ordained minister. I am reminded by the message from Queen Alexandra, that when she asked our Founder to write in her autograph book he wrote his name and motto, "William Booth, Saved to Save." This spirit has made the Army what it is—a force raised from among the people, for the people, fighting to win souls from their rebellion to God and turn them into aggressive fighters in His cause. How much thinner the ranks of Christ's universal Army would have been had not God empowered William Booth and Catherine Booth to raise the battalions of the Salvation Army.

If the Salvation Army had never been brought into existence, I really think that the Council of the League of Nations, in which we are so interested, might have been different, for I find article 7 in the constitution of that Council reads thus: "All positions in or in connection with the League, including the secretariat, shall be open equally to men and women." This clause might well have been lifted from the constitution of the Salvation Army. Who can say how much different would have been the progress of the women's cause had not the Army exalted women to positions of influence, or indeed had this particular feature of Salvation Army work been omitted?

Wonderful Women

The names and the work of wonderful women as our Army Mother, Catherine Booth, and her daughter, the Consul, Commissioner Ouchterlony, of Sweden, Brigadier von Hartman, of Finland, Colonel Yuddha Bai of India, and countless others crowd in upon us. Surely their names are written on Jehovah's hands and He is not ashamed to be called their God. Salvationist women have made an indelible mark on Salvation Army history.

CANADA WEST
Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton have left Territorial Headquarters for a "band" tour in Southern Saskatchewan, spending the first week-end at Moose Jaw and the second at Oxbow.

The Commissioner, assisted by the Chief Secretary, presided at the Dedication of the Manitoba Division Home of Rest at Winnipeg Beach on Dominion Day. It has been named "Hidley Wood Cottage," after the home of our late General.

The members of Headquarters staff were the guests of the Division on this occasion. It was also the 25th anniversary of the wedding of Brigadier and Mrs. Taylor.

The Chief Secretary has had an exceedingly busy week, with as many members of Territorial Headquarters on furlough, with interviews, inspections, arranging for change of appointments, etc.

Brigadier and Mrs. Phillips conducted the meeting at the Citadel of Peace Sunday.

We hear that Captain and Mrs. Jones (Edmonton) are rejoicing over the arrival of an addition to their family. It is a boy or girl? We do not know, but we offer our congratulations.

Major Sims, the energetic Young People's Secretary, is at present touring the Kootenays and Southern Alberta in the interest of his Department. We expect that he will have some interesting and new notes for a later issue of "The War-Cry."

Brigadier McLane (Divisional Commander for British Columbia) informs us that the Young People's Week at Kamloops making good progress. The Brigadier recently conducted the successful opening of Kelowna, B.C., assisted by the Vernon Band, who rendered good service. Nine Young People came forward.

Letter From The Commissioner TO THE OFFICERS, SOLDIERS, AND FRIENDS OF THE SALVATION ARMY THROUGHOUT CANADA WEST

MY DEAR COMRADES AND FRIENDS—

Again we are able to thank God for a glorious Self-Denial victory, and to record a total of $25,116.50 for Canada West Territory, which is $6,016.50 more than last year, and more than double the Self-Denial result ($13,083.55) for the West when our Territory was formed four years ago.

Our thanks are due to our Officers and Soldiers, who have so splendidly taken hold of the Effort, and, notwithstanding the recent Red Shield Drives interfering somewhat, have still persevered and got the victory.

A special feature also of this year's Self-Denial, which has pleased me very much, has been the largely-increased personal gifts of our own people. Many cases have come to my knowledge where the personal offerings at the Altar Services have been two and three times as great as in previous years. This shows the true Self-Denial spirit—and may it grow among us still more!

Then our friends who, by personal gifts and prayer, have again joined with us surely deserve a special word of thanks, for in spite of every other call upon their generosity, they have not forgotten the Salvation Army, but rather contributed in increasing measure. May God bless and reward them!

Our Missionary Funds, at home and abroad, will be richer for our Self-Denial, but with "fields white unto harvest." I wish we could have gladdened the heart of our General by raising twice as much for

Commissioner Sowton

Visits Le Pas and Gives Address on Army's World-Wide Social Work

"THE ARMY IS HERE READY FOR ADVANCE"

It was a very interested and attentive audience that assembled in the Salvation Army Hall at Le Pas to listen to Commissioner Sowton's address on "The world-wide Social Work of the Salvation Army." The meeting was presided over by Professor Wallace, Provincial Commissioner of Education for Northern Manitoba, who was supported by Rev. Mr. Bailliford, (Anglican), and Rev. Mr. Ferguson, (Presbyterian).

The Commissioner held his audience in rapt attention while he outlined the great Social Work of our Organization, illustrating his remarks with striking incidents of wonderful cases of rescue and reformation from the "Under World." That his listeners appreciated and enjoyed the splendid address was evidenced by the hearty applause which endorsed the vote of thanks that was moved by Rev. Mr. Ferguson and seconded by Mr. Jacobson. Adjutant Marshall accompanied the Commissioner on his visit, and assisted in the meeting. Captain and Mrs. Norberg had all necessary arrangements well in hand, and were delighted with the visit of their leader, who was entertained over night by Mr. and Mrs. Carroll.

Conditions are somewhat quiet at the Pas at present owing to the closing down of the mines and lumber mills, and a great many of the men have left town, but there is undoubtedly a bright future ahead, and this place is certain to become a prosperous and progressive community as soon as the development of the wealth of natural resources surrounding the immediate vicinity, as well as the country farther north to Hudson's Bay is undertaken.

The Salvation Army is here, prepared to advance with the onward march of the day.—J. H. M.

An up-to-date and splendidly equipped Soldier's Hostel was recently opened in Sydney (Australia) by Commissioner and Mrs. Hay.

FURLOUGH COTTAGE OPENED AT WINNIPEG BEACH ON DOMINION DAY

"Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of Wedding of Brigadier and Mrs. Taylor also Happily Celebrated

A double event, and a great success! Preparatory to the opening, for the summer season, of the splendid cottage secured by the Manitoba Division, the officers, while furloUGHing, of the Divisional Commander had arranged a special Dedication service on Dominion Day.

In addition thereto, Brigadier and Mrs. Taylor also celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary. Practically all of the officers from all Departments of the Salvation Army in the city were there. Needless to say, a most enjoyable profitable time was spent together.

Among those present were Commissioner and Mrs. Sowerton, Colonel and Mrs. Turner, Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Noble, Major Tudke, Sims and Peacock, Commandants Harrison, Hanna and Turner, with their respective wives, and a large number of other Staff, Field and Social Officers.

The Commissioner presided over the Dedication service, which was held in the afternoon, and in his opening address, the Commissioner said the splendid suitability of the premises for the worthy purpose for which they had been acquired, also the fitness of the name that had been selected—"Hadley Wood"—after the home of our revered Founder.

Honourable Record

Referring to the anniversary of the wedding of Brigadier and Mrs. Taylor, he not only congratulated them upon their twenty-five years of happy married life, but also referred as well to the honourable record of faithful service they had given, both before and since then, and expressed the hope that they might be spared to see many more anniversaries.

The Commissioner then read a suitable portion of Scripture. Short addresses were given by Colonel Turner and Lieutenant-Colonel Noble, while Adjutant Merritt, Divisional Young People's Secretary, extended to the Divisional Commander and Mrs. Taylor his congratulations, on all the Officers of the Division, assuring them of united prayers for God's continued blessing in coming years, and that all present evidently joined, judging from the expressions of approval that followed.

Mrs. Commissioner Sowerton, naturally somewhat moved, made reply in suitable terms to all that had been said by the several speakers. They gave thanks to God for His goodness to them during the many years that have passed since their marriage, and pledged themselves to their best endeavour to merit in a fuller degree in future all that had been said of the past.

Before the singing of the Doxology the Commissioner formally dedicated the cottage for the Glory of God, and for the use and service of all who would from time to time have the privilege of enjoying a stay under its hospitable roof. The event was spent in the most pleasant and around the ground.—J. H. M.

BACK from International Headquarters looking as fit as ever we have seen him, for the change after the strenuous five years has evidently done him a world of good physically. Commissioner Richards gave his first whole half-hour at the office to "The War Cry"—that is to the Officers, Soldiers and friends of the Salvation Army who read our pages.

There is never any need to waste time over preliminaries with the Commissioner. We went straight to business.

Remarkable Dispatch
"Have the objects of your visit to London been attained?"

"According to the Chief Secretary and the Comrades on this side, to whom many of the decisions arrived at were at once communicated to me, I put into effect, the business of the hands has been put through with remarkable dispatch."

Did you find a disposition to give attitude to Canadian affairs?"

"Most certainly, and, what is more! I found the General, the Chief of the Staff and the International Secretary much more conversant with Canadian and Newfoundland affairs, even those which might be termed the most internal, than had anticipated. When one considers the vast extent of the Salvation Army and the many countries, the affairs married the Leaders of the Salvation Army must have some acquaintance with their knowledge of these Dominion was, in fact, far beyond what one would have expected."

"How did you find the General and the whole of the new positions?"

"I was delighted to note that the General was in much better health than when I saw him last, five years ago. He was in excellent health, and I was a twinkle in the Commissioner's eye which spoke no little pleasure in contemplating the work which was being done, and that he had not yet received farewell orders myself."

"One of the decisions arrived at which has yet to be put into effect?"

"Brigadier and Mrs. Taylor, though naturally somewhat moved, made reply in suitable terms to all that had been said by the several speakers. They gave thanks to God for His goodness to them during the many years that have passed since their marriage, and pledged themselves to their best endeavour to merit in a fuller degree in future all that had been said of the past."

Before the singing of the Doxology the Commissioner formally dedicated the cottage for the Glory of God, and for the use and service of all who would from time to time have the privilege of enjoying a stay under its hospitable roof. The event was spent in the most pleasant and around the ground.—J. H. M.

SONGS OF SALVATION

HE WILL CLEANSE
Tune—Keep the Home Fires Burning.

I have been to Christ for cleansing,
For the Holy Spirit's fire,
And the blood has made me pure
And with love my heart inspired,
And, by faith and prompt obedience,
To His precious word of power,
I have joy and peace each moment,
And His presence every hour.

Chorus:

If your heart is yearning,
For the Spirit's burning,
He will cleanse you now,
From sin and self and pride.
Give you joy for sadness,
Holy power o'er badness,
Walk right with you evermore
All your steps to guide.

Since my heart was truly willing
In this holy way to walk,
And my ears are ever open
Listening when my Lord shall talk,
Oh! What joy in full surrender,
As I serve Him without ceasing,
For He speaks to me so plainly,
And His Spirit is so near.

Pour out now, your heart before Him

He's a refuge for your soul,
Consecrate to Him your service,
On Him now your burdens roll.
He'll destroy all sin and sadness.
Set your soul with love on fire,
Then you'll onward go, and by His Grace

Snatch souls out of the mire,
—Commanded to help a comrade who desired to return to God by E. M. Stuart, Fredericton.

A CLEANSING FLOOD

Tunes—Sovereignty, 119; Ye banks and braes, 121; Song Book, 18.
Thou Lamb of God, whose Precious Blood

For every guilty sinner flows,
A cleansing, efficacious flood,
A healing stream for human woes,
Now let us feel its quickening power,
Oh, cleanse our souls this very hour.

Oh, solemnize our every heart,
And let us feel Thy presence now.
Sinbide, dear Lord, each stubborn heart,
That all in penitence may bow.

Convict us by Thy mighty power,
And save, dear Lord, this very hour.

CARDINAL MERCIER AND PROHIBITION

In a special interview granted a representative of the New York Times on June 18 and quoted in the paper, the following Cardinal Mercier of Belgium expressed his opinion regarding Prohibition for Europe. The interviewer stated that Cardinal Mercier expressed his view on Prohibition with animation, warning to his subject and saying:

"I am a great believer in the expression of intoxicating drinks such as alcohol and absinthe. If Prohibition were introduced, man human lives would be saved that is his subject and saying:

"Alcohol kills more men than war, and kills them dishonorably. When a man is killed by war an existence is suppressed, whereas the evil invigorates after inebriation have had enough of existence. Complete prohibition cannot be introduced instantaneously but gradually, step by step, taking circumstances into consideration. The use of alcohol should be made increasingly strict."

KEEP OLD VEGETABLE SEED

After the garden is planted last spring, there are usually left packages of seed remaining unused and frequently these disappear before the next season comes around. One (says "The Farmer's Advocate") can effect a small saving by preserving the seed for the next year. Seed formerly, seed is scarce, and when it will germinate with good vitality there is no reason for not saving the seed from year to year. Unused packages of seed should be kept in a dry place, free from attacks by rats and mice.

A Purdue University bulletin gives the life of vegetable seeds in follows: Asparagus, 2 years; beans, 3 years; pole beans, 3 years; Brussels sprouts, 5; cabbage, 5; carrots, 4 or 5; cauliflower, 5; celery, 8; celeriac, 8; Swiss chard, 5; corn, 6; sweet corn, 2; upland cress, 5; cucumber, 10; egg plant, 5; jack, 10; kale, 5; kohlrabi, 4; lettuce, 3; musk melon, 5; onion, 5; parsley, 10; parsnip, 2; peas, 3; pepper, 4; pumpkins, 5; radishes, 5; spinach, 5; winter squashes, 6; tomatoes, 5; turnips, 5.

When garden seeds of any kind are kept over from year to year they should be tested for germination and if there is any diminution in vitality, or particularly in germination ability, more seed should be sown. However, old seed has a value and should not be wasted.
